INTERNSHIP
PROGRAM
(EMIP)

The Edwards MBA Internship Program (EMIP) is a way for you to put into practice some of those new MBA business skills and to test your career direction in your first year. Studies and research have shown that students who complete internships while studying have a stronger professional network and find a job faster when they graduate!

THE INTERNSHIP

Each fall, admitted interns will compete for work placements. Each position is paid, full-time (35+ hours per week) and takes place from January to August (with the possibility to extend until December). The Edwards Career Services team works collaboratively with industry and students to find professional opportunities. The recruitment process is highly competitive and there is no guarantee of a placement.

THE SMALL PRINT

Students pursuing the internship option must agree to complete their MBA in two years.

All MBA students admitted to EMIP must attend mandatory orientation and professional development workshops in the fall.

The work experience is complemented by two zero-credit MBA courses (with associated tuition), with accompanying assignments as well as Career Services supervision and guidance.
